

JTC Study of Business Models for Financially Sustainable EV Charging Networks
ADVISORY PANEL

Name	Position representing on panel	Title	Location
Representative Judy Clibborn	State Representative, 41 st District	JTC Co-Chair	Mercer Island
Representative Ed Orcutt	State Representative, 20 th District	JTC Executive Committee Member	Kalama
Representative Jake Fey	State Representative, 27 th District	House Transportation Committee Member	Tacoma
Representative Drew MacEwen	State Representative, 35 th District	House Republican Caucus Member	Union
Representative Chad Magendanz	State Representative, 5 th District	House Republican Caucus Member	Issaquah
Senator Mark Mullet	State Senator, 5 th District	Senate Transportation Committee Member	Issaquah
Sandra Pinto de Bader	Representative from city or county that owns/operates EV charging stations	Environmental Sustainability Policy Advisor City of Seattle Office of Sustainability	Seattle
Ron Johnston-Rodriguez	EV professional who has developed EV charging infrastructure along popular tourist routes or recreational destinations	Principal, RJR & Associates Director, Plug-in North Central Washington	Wenatchee
Stephen Johnsen	EV driver with demonstrated knowledge of the charging needs of a broad range of EV drivers	President, Seattle EV Association (SEVA)	Seattle
David Peterson	Representative from manufacturer of battery-electric vehicles	Nissan North America, Inc.; EV Regional Manager - West, Marketing & Sales Strategy	Franklin, Tennessee
Glen Stancil	Representative from EV charging service industry	Vice President, NRG Energy EV Services (eVgo)	Houston, Texas
Ben Farrow	Representative from investor-owned electric utility	Program Manager of Emerging Technologies, Puget Sound Energy (PSE)	Bellevue
Wayne Amondson	Representative from consumer-owned utility such as a public utility district (PUD)	Senior Project Engineer, Cowlitz PUD	Kelso
Scott DeWees	Representative from Western Washington Clean Cities Coalition	Clean Transportation Project Manager, Puget Sound Clean Air Agency	Seattle
Jeff Doyle	Representative from WSDOT responsible for EV charging infrastructure	Director, Public Private Partnerships, WSDOT	Olympia